

Local Items

All About Our Town And Its People

Paul Havey spent Monday in Grand Rapids.

L. L. Rocky returned from Ionia Monday.

Mrs. A. J. Neve went to Pierson last Thursday.

John Donovan spent last week in Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Emma Lamb was in Grand Rapids Monday.

Mrs. R. C. Crawford went to Grand Rapids Monday.

W. L. Reeves was in Moseley on business last Thursday.

Mrs. Fred Warner and daughter are visiting in Stanwood.

Frank Donovan was in Chicago from Friday until Monday.

Guy Alexander was in the city last Friday from Grand Rapids.

Miss Nora Cameron spent Sunday with relatives in Grand Rapids.

Have your Christmas photos made early. Telephone for an appointment 376. Dennis Studio.—adv.

George Gleason went to Grand Rapids on business last Thursday.

Elizabeth Olger was in Grand Rapids over Sunday visiting her mother.

Miss Hazel Sturgis of Grand Rapids spent Monday with friends here.

Misses Fay Ellery and Thelma Jensen were in Reed City over Sunday.

Misses Clara Shanahan and Adeline Remider were in Greenville Saturday.

Miss Georgia Smith went home to Stanwood Friday for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Elizabeth Shaw was in Greenville over Sunday, the guest of Mrs. Youngs.

Mrs. H. T. Hale is in St. Johns visiting relatives. She went there last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cusser and two daughters visited friends in Crystal Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Hanks were in Grand Rapids over Sunday visiting her son, Earl.

Mrs. G. F. Smith attended the county convention of women's clubs in Ionia Monday.

Barney C. Race left Friday to visit his son, Falley Race, in Kalamazoo for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slater were in Grand Rapids Saturday, returning Sunday evening.

Mrs. C. Woodruff went to Grand Rapids last Friday to visit her relatives for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jensen of Big Rapids spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Wheeler.

Mary E. Powers was in Howard City visiting friends and relatives Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Nettie Hammond returned from Finley, Ohio last week, and is back in her old home again. She enjoyed her stay in Ohio, but says there is no place like home and to be among old friends.

Over a score of our customers are using Parian Sage on their hair. It removes dandruff and prevents baldness. Sold on guarantee. Wortley & French.—adv.

Mrs. C. E. Groves of Edmore was the guest of her daughter, Miss Zerk, Thursday and Friday.

Charles W. Williams and family of Dighton moved here last week and are located on Ionia street.

Vote for Glenn D. Mathews for Judge of Probate.—adv.

Lester Hulbert was the guest of Harlan Reeves Friday night.

Master Milan Reeves has been on the sick list during the past week.

The Ladies' Literary Exchange club met with Mrs. Ralph Mason, Thursday, November 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Urech left Saturday to go to Durand for a visit on the farm with their son.

Mrs. H. T. Hale has been in St. Johns visiting relatives and friends. She went there last Friday.

Mrs. P. A. Brown, who was the guest of her son last week, returned home to Blanchard Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank O'Brien spent Tuesday in Grand Rapids. They went to see "The Bird of Paradise."

Will the people who have our pines be kind enough to return them to City Bakery—"Thanks."—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Avis of Grand Rapids were the over Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hocksted.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rimes and son, Lewis, and Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Tromp motored to Ionia Saturday.

Mrs. L. A. Gleason, who had been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert McConnell, returned to Grand Rapids Monday.

Mrs. Myra Gill, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. A. Smith, returned home to Grand Rapids Monday.

Miss Leona Welham and Miss Minnie Hoover left Friday for Marion and Reed City to visit at their homes.

Mrs. George Kingsbury went to Sheridan Thursday to visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wright. She returned Friday.

Glenn D. Mathews deserves your support for Judge of Probate.—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith and sons, Roy and Earl, of Ionia, and Mr. Randall were callers on John Raymond and family Sunday.

Nicholas Gotting has rented his farm to Wm. Hutton of Stanton and moved back to Belding. He resides at 213 East Division street.

Mrs. Ed. Raymond of Toledo, Ohio, is here caring for her husband's mother, Mrs. Mary Raymond, who has been ill for the past three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clancy entertained their daughter, Mrs. Hodgkins, of Grand Rapids, for several weeks. She returned home last Thursday.

Ed. Winger of Detroit was in the city last Friday. He had been visiting his sister, Mrs. Jude Spencer, of Grand Lodge, and came here on business.

Mrs. Iva Hull, Miss Georgina Aeslin and sister, Miss Glance, were in Grand Rapids Monday. They saw the play, "The Bird of Paradise," while there.

Sale of trimmed hats at The Belding Hat Shoppe Saturday, November 4.—adv.

Mrs. Charles Woodruff and son, Edward, have returned from Grand Rapids, where she went last Friday to see her mother, Mrs. Clark Graves, in the Blodgett hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Pinkham entertained his mother, Mrs. William Pinkham, and her sister, Mrs. Mary Slingsby, of Fullerton, California. They left Friday for home.

Mrs. Frank Laick was in Grand Rapids the first of the week with Mrs. Emma Brown, who was operated upon there Monday morning. Mrs. Brown is getting along nicely.

Chauncey Chase, who has been in Chicago attending school for some time, spent the week-end with friends here. He was on his way to Saginaw, where he has accepted a position.

A. J. Medlar, who had been the guest of John Cusser and Chris. Liebum, of Orleans, left for Florida last Thursday. He and Mr. Liebum put in considerable time hunting and bagged a lot of partridge, woodcock and rabbits.

Vote for Glenn D. Mathews for Judge of Probate. He doesn't want it for life.—adv.

Mrs. James Banks and son are spending a week in Detroit visiting her father and sisters. Her sister, Mrs. Laudy of the State of New York, is there also for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Deitz were Sunday dinner guests of Robert Wells. After dinner Mr. and Mrs. Deitz, Mr. Wells and Mrs. Robinson motored to Grand Rapids and attended the shows in the afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sheldon of Eaton Rapids have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Hall. Mr. Hall, who has been confined to the house and his bed for several weeks, is improving and able to be up.

Miss Nora Samain of Portland, was in the city Friday and Saturday, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Cooper. She was son her way to Sheridan.

Miss Samain is the daughter of Fred Samain, a former resident here.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Gwatkin and son, Joseph, of Grand Rapids, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur James Sunday. They were on their way home from Howell, where they had been to attend the wedding of Miss Winifred Bush.

One-fourth off on dress and tailored hats Saturday, November 4. Belding Hat Shoppe.—adv.

Mrs. Ed. Andre and daughter, May Francis, of Dayton, Ohio, arrived on Saturday and gave her sister, Mrs. Will Annis, a surprise. Mrs. Andre did not let the people here know she was coming and when she and her daughter drove up to the Annis home in a taxi, the surprise was complete. They will remain for a week.

B. J. Russell of Baldwin was the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Olds last Thursday, returning home Friday. He is the county treasurer of Lake county, and had been to Lansing on business. Mr. Russell has been nominated for judge of probate on the republican ticket, and will undoubtedly be elected to that office.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Luscombe, who moved into the city last summer from their farm onto the Glenn Granger place, may yet have the pleasure of eating strawberry shortcake from berries fresh from the vines. Mrs. Luscombe was out in the patch last Thursday and picked a stem containing a good-sized ripe one, several green ones and one in the blossom.

A splendid line of tam for girls and hats for children. Belding Hat Shoppe.—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Lon Seabolt and son, Lon, of Kalkaska, were the guests last Wednesday of Mrs. David Wherry. Mrs. Seabolt is a niece of Mrs. Wherry.

Editor W. B. Wells of the Greenville Call has figured out what constitutes a day's work. He says that it depends altogether on our occupation. If you lay brick, eight hours; if you keep house, sixteen hours; if you preach the gospel, two hours; if you are a porter in a sleeping car, twenty hours; if you serve the government, one hour; and if you are a newspaper man, twenty-four hours.

SHILOH

Ora Decker and family were in Shiloh Sunday.

Miss Elsie Swears visited Sunday in Ionia.

Mrs. Geo. Boyd of Laingsburg visited her sister, Mrs. Emily Morris, last week.

Noah Russell and family visited his daughter, Miss Ray Mikesell, Sunday.

Frank Heth was at Long Lake one day last week.

Ben Comstock, Jr., was in Orleans one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Morgan called on the former's parents, one evening last week.

Ben Warren has a new Ford car.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION
(First Insertion Sept. 27, 1916)
STATE OF MICHIGAN—The circuit court for the county of Ionia, ss.
IN CHANCERY.

Beth R. Harvey, Plaintiff, vs.
Charles M. Harvey, Defendant.

Suit pending in the circuit court for the county of Ionia, in Chancery, at the city of Ionia in said county, on the 25th day of September, A. D. 1916.

In this cause it appearing from affidavit on file, that the defendant, Charles M. Harvey, left his last known place of residence, at Lowell, Michigan, on or about the 28th day of April, A. D. 1915, since which time his place of residence cannot be ascertained after diligent inquiry.

On motion of Fred L. Warner, plaintiff's attorney, it is ordered that the said defendant, Charles M. Harvey, cause his appearance to be entered herein, within three months from the date of this order; and that in default thereof, said bill be taken as confessed by the said absent defendant.

And it is further ordered, That within twenty days the said plaintiff cause a notice of this order to be published in the Belding Banner, a newspaper printed, published and circulating in said county, and that such publication be continued therein at least one in each week for seven weeks in succession.

FRANK D. M. DAVIS,
Circuit Judge.

FRED L. WARNER,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

Attest: A true copy.
BRUCE S. MOULTON,
18-t-7 Deputy County Clerk.

PROBATE OF WILL
(First Insertion October 18)
STATE OF MICHIGAN—The probate court for the county of Ionia.

At a session of said court, held at the probate office in the city of Ionia,

Your Neighbors.

One or more of your neighbors have chosen the Belding Savings Bank as the depository of their savings.

After calm deliberation they have taken their dollars to to this Old Reliable Bank.

You can do no better. If you have not already opened a Saving Account at this strong Savings Bank, delay no longer.

Call at once for the book which has been set aside for you.

It's the Bank on the Corner.

BELDING SAVINGS BANK

On the Corner
Always at Your Service in said county, on the tenth day of October, A. D. 1916.

Present: Hon. Montgomery Webster, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Agnes Pearl Trask, deceased, Noble D. Trask, having filed in said court his petition praying that a certain instrument in writing, purporting to be the last will and testament of said deceased, now on file in said court be admitted to probate, and that the administration of said estate be granted to Frank R. Chase, as administrator with the will annexed, or to some other suitable person.

It is ordered, That the fourteenth day of November, A. D. 1916, at one-thirty o'clock in the afternoon, at said probate office, be and is hereby appointed for hearing said petition.

It is further ordered, That public notice thereof be given by publication of a copy of this order, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing, in the Belding Banner, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county.

MONTGOMERY WEBSTER,
Judge of Probate.

A true copy.
FLORENCE C. DODD,
21-t-3 Deputy Register of Probate.

APPOINTMENT OF ADMINISTRATOR
(First Insertion Nov. 1, 1916)
STATE OF MICHIGAN—The probate court for the county of Ionia.

At a session of said court, held at the probate office in the city of Ionia, in said county, on the twenty-fifth day of October, A. D. 1916.

Present: Hon. Montgomery Webster, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the estate of Gertrude E. Wilson, deceased, David E. Wilson, father and heir-at-law of said deceased, having filed in said court his petition praying that the administration of said estate be granted to Wilbur S. Wilson, or to some other suitable person.

It is ordered, That the twenty-seventh day of November, A. D. 1916, at one-thirty o'clock in the afternoon, at said probate office, be and is hereby appointed for hearing said petition.

It is further ordered, That public notice thereof be given by publication of a copy of this order, for three successive weeks previous to said day of hearing, in the Belding Banner, a newspaper printed and circulated in said county.

MONTGOMERY WEBSTER,
Judge of Probate.

A true copy.
ANNA P. WEBSTER,
21-t-3 Register of Probate.

One kind of a nuisance is a man who works but tries to impress people with the idea that he doesn't have to.

HUDSON'S DOLLAR DAY

I could not participate in Belding's Second Big Dollar Day event on October 21st, because north Bridge Street was closed for improvements. The street was closed to traffic in the early summer and access has been gained to my grocery only by extreme difficulty.

BRIDGE STREET IS NOW OPEN from one end of the city to the other. You can drive to my grocery as easily as to any other store in the city. My grocery is located on the best paved street obtainable.

Many of my former customers have been shut away from my store because of the difficulties in getting to my door.. I now invite you to drive right up to my front door and see how nicely I am prepared to take care of your every want in groceries. I am going to have a good big get acquainted meeting and reunion at the North Bridge Street Grocery (Right on the paved way) I am going to give my many customers some real money saving values in merchandise. Read some of my prices below and you will be convinced that this is the place to buy.

E. E. HUDSON

I want to call your attention to our line of Telfer's Teas and Coffees for which we are sole agents.

W. J. G Tea is packed in half-pound tinfoil and retails at

50 cents per pound

We Give Auto Tickets With Each 25c Cash Purchase

Blue Ribbon Oleomargarine

Is the best substitute for butter. We give color with each pound so you can get the beautiful June color. 2 pound Bricks 52c

Our new stock of Corn Syrup is fine. White Cadillac 15, 30 and 50c per can Eclipse, amber color 10, 25 and 45c per can

We Give Auto Tickets With Each 25c Cash Purchase

Special for Saturday, Nov. 4

Sack Charcoal	- - - - -	10c
Pure Lard six pounds	- - - - -	$1.00
100 pound sack Scratch Feed	- - - - -	$2.25
Best Red Salmon, per dozen cans	- - - - -	$1.75
3 packages Macaroni	- - - - -	25c
Double Dip Matches, 12 boxes	- - - - -	45c
5 packages Sugared Cornflakes	- - - - -	25c
Jelly-Con, 4 packages	- - - - -	25c
10 packages Johnson's Washing Powder	- - - - -	25c

We Give Auto Tickets With Each 25c Cash Purchase

IF YOU HAVE NOT BEEN A CUSTOMER AT THIS STORE--BETTER TRY ONE ORDER

Phone No. 23-R

E.E. HUDSON

212 North
Bridge Street

Belding, Michigan